Buuuuuu

It's Been nice
Knowing you Hope to see you in the Summer

"To everything there is a season, and time to every purpose under the heaven."

1981 was a time of change at hapeville high school and community,

"a time to break down,

and a time to build up:"

1981 was a time to build up . . . the sports program, enrollment, and most of all, spirit!

"a time to weep and a time to laugh:"

1981 was a time to cry at the thought of hhs closing, but changes have made it a time to laugh.

"a time to keep and a time to cast away."

1981 was a time to keep hhs alive in spirit; for the seniors, it was a time to cast away . . .

their childhood memories and replace them with visions of the beginning of the rest of their lives.

Homecoming

HOMECOMING 1980-81

The 1980-81 homecoming was full of excitement, especially for Julie Ashmore who was crowned queen. The other two girls on the senior court were Debra Carey and Cathy Teague. The lower class queens were, Barbara Cox - 11th, Cheryl Gordon - 10th, Traci Carr - 9th, and Joy Coggins - 8th. Julie was escorted by Foy Dyches; Debra was escorted by Johnny Allen; and Cathy was escorted by Tim Albright.

The sophomore queen was Cheryl Gordon, escorted by Howell Turner.

The eighth grade queen was Joy Coggin, escorted by Blynn Gragg

The ninth grade queen was Traci Carr, escorted by Daniel Gibson.

Homecoming wasn't fun for only the queens; the whole school took part in the activities to promote the school spirit. Each day was set up with certain activities so the entire student body could get the homecoming spirit.

During homecoming, each day had a certain style such as, hat and sock day, gross out day, 50's day, dress up day and jersey day. Each grade also had a hall and a float to decorate, and a skit to perform. The class that had the most spirit at the end of the week won the spirit stick.

On Friday there was a parade and the game. The dance on Saturday night culminated the week.

Despite the losing record, Coach Ramsey feels that valuable experience was gained this year and that Hapeville is on the way toward a strong football program. Departing seniors in 1981 are: Bill Cody, Tommy Cohen, Daniel Digby, David Ferguson, Jimmy Lewis, Richard Lietz, Bill Long, Bobby Morris, and Tommy Reeves.

Academics

Social Studies

Social Sciences introduced students to everything from the workings of the political machine to the ancient Egyptian civilizations. The Social Science Department is equipped with maps, globes, films, and filmstrips in order to make the subjects taught more realistic. Current Events and A reading lab are included. The teachers are Ms. Wilson, Ms. Bryant, Ms. Owens, and Mr. Cook.

Spanish and Science

The only foreign language offered at Hapeville is Spanish. The teacher is Ms. Mokas. She teaches at the high school in the morning and the North Avenue Elementary school in the afternoons.

The science teachers at Hapeville are Bill Speck, Ricky Harwood, Ed Daniel, and James Spivey. The classes that are taught range from Physical Science to Human Physiology.

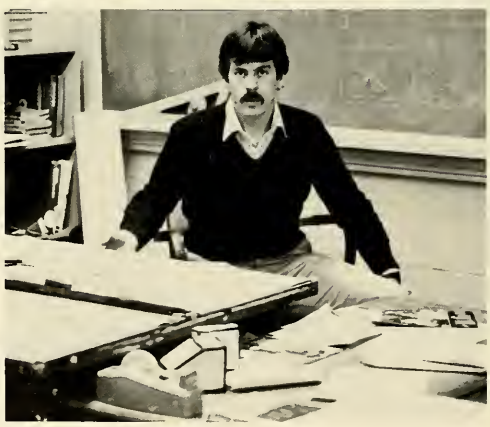

Physical Education and Industrial Arts

Physical Education offers a variety of sports and games such as volleyball, tennis, golf, field hockey, bowling, football, and basketball. The students use the skills and abilities that they have learned in the past and develope them even further in these classes. Three of the most important things taught are good sportsmanship, fair play, and competition. These skills have a great carry over value for the future.

The Industrial Arts classes give students a chance to express their creative talents in wood-working and drafting. The classes are taught by Coach Ramsey. The students learn the ins and outs of industrial and architectural drawings and technical design.

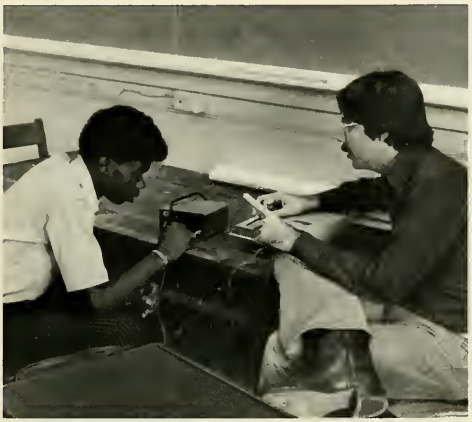

Special Education

Hapeville houses one of two modified self-contained learning disabilities programs in Fulton County High Schools. The program is designed to serve students who are of normal intelligence, but have a deficiency in one or more of the psychological processes. Students can take two to four classes per quarter in this setting. English, Social Studies, Math, and Science are generally taught.

Music And Art

Art is an elective subject which is available to all students. The art room is equipped with kilns, a printing press, and a variety of materials which make possible a variety of visual experiences.

The band is one of the many organizations which build and support the school spirit. The Drill Team and the Majorettes add a great deal of excitement and color to the band.

Business Education And Home Economics

The Business Department offers courses for both college bound and those planning to go immediately into the business world. Their leadership club is the Future Business Leaders of America, FBLA.

If you smell something good in the halls next to the library, it's probably from the Home Economics Department. Mrs. Boyles works all day teaching students to cook and sew.

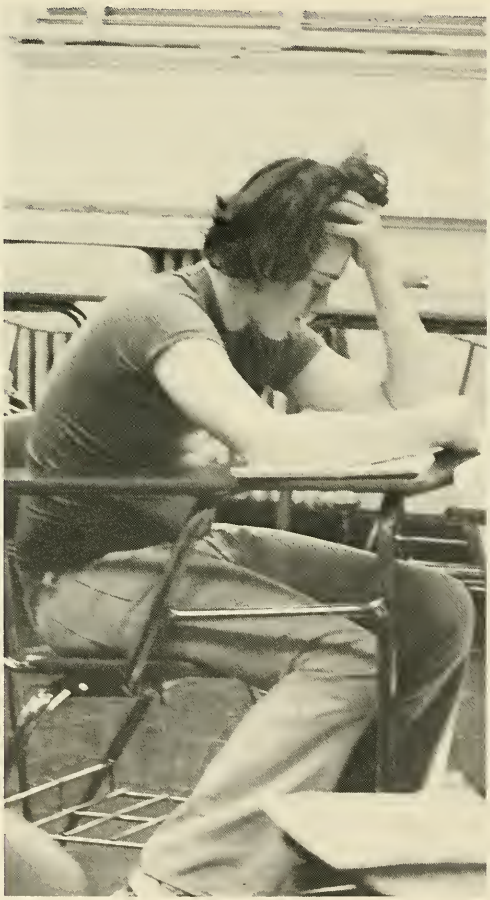

English

Shakespeare, Modern British Literature, Southern Literature among others compose the English courses offered at Hapeville. The students are introduced to the different periods of English and American Literature as well as composition and rhetoric.

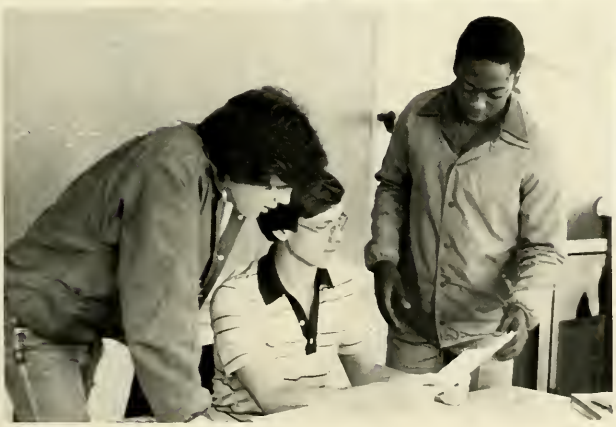

Mathematics

The Math department endeavors to help the student further his knowledge of working mathematics, through classes in 8th grade math, pre Algebra, Algebra, Geometry, Algebra II, Analysis, and Calculus.

Library

The library is one of the centers of the school. It has 12,714 books and reference materials. It subscribes to 73 magazines and five papers. The students seem to use the library for everything from studying and research to quiet conversation. Mrs. Mowbray and Mrs. Williams have done a great job with the library over the years.

here I am here I am with my heart breaking,

needing someone to hold me

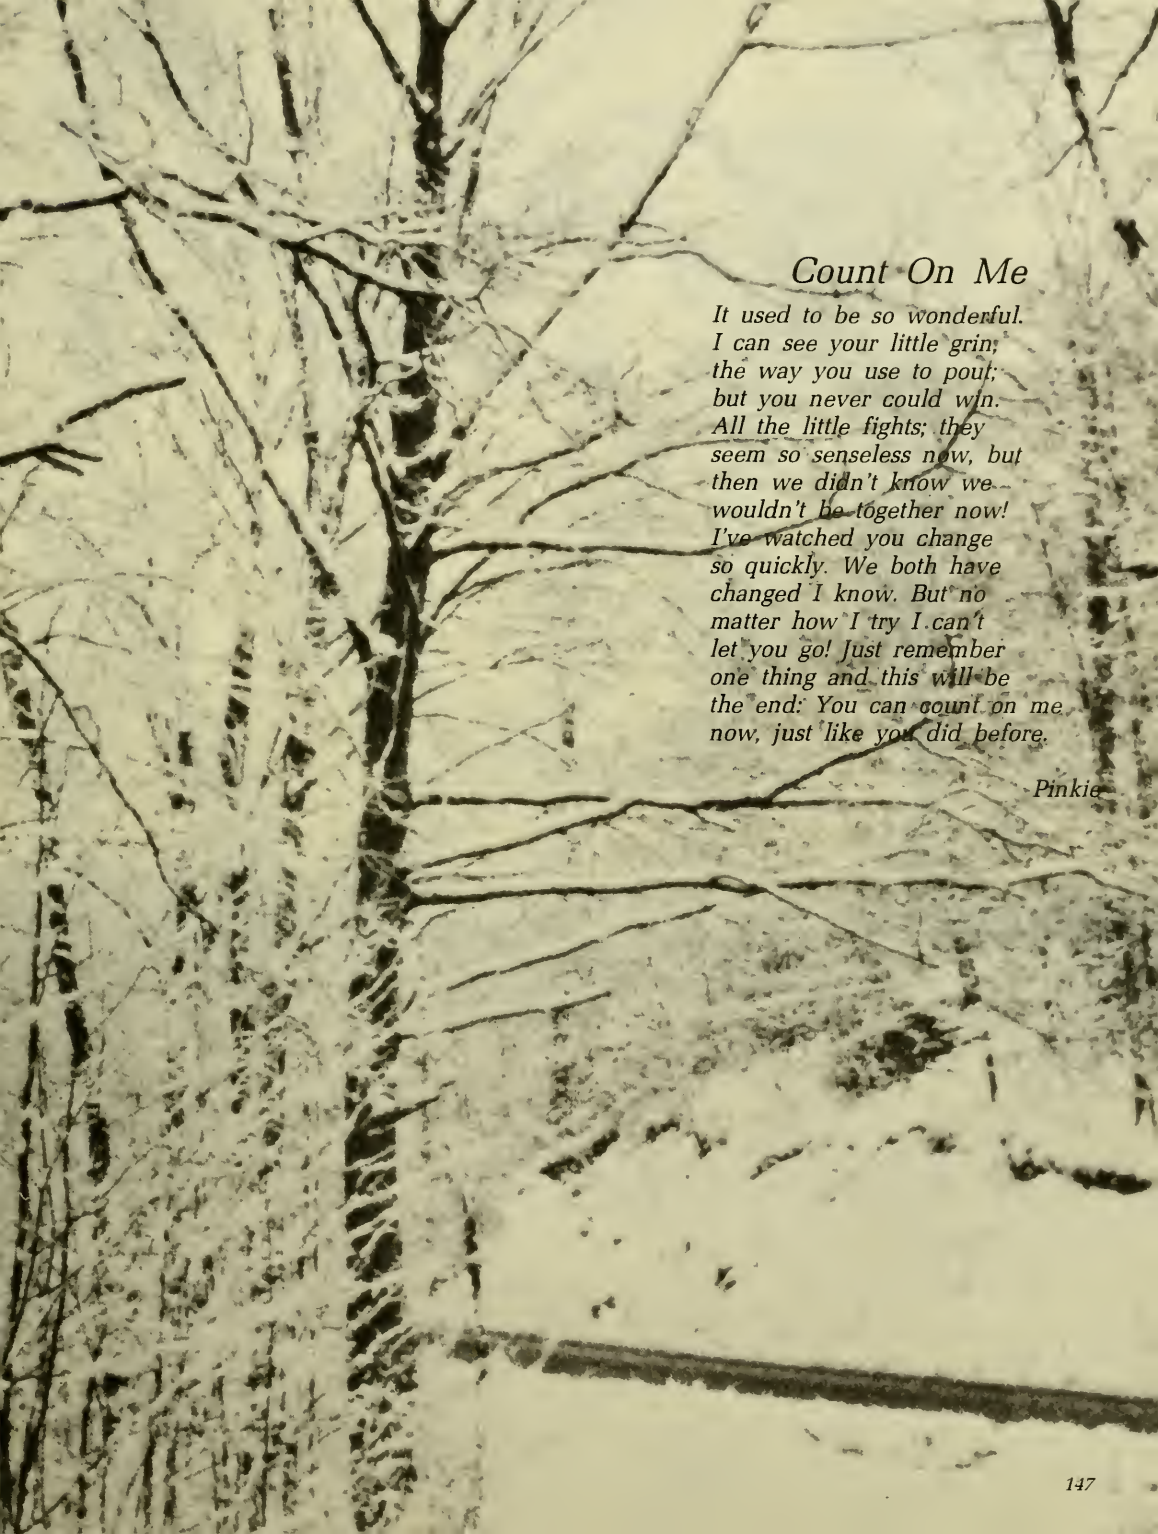

here I am mad and confused
needing someone to hold me

here I am with so much love to give needing someone to hold me

here I am where are You?

Sincerely,
I

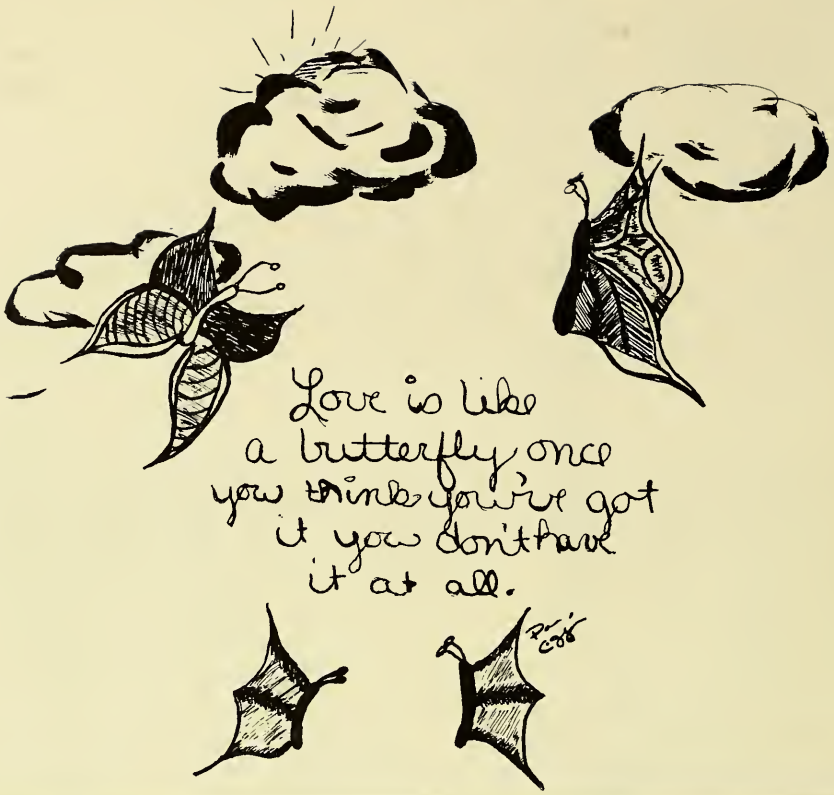

Count On Me

It used to be so wonderful.
I can see your little grin;
the way you use to pout;
but you never could win.
All the little fights; they seem so senseless now, but then we didn't know we wouldn't be together now!
I've watched you change so quickly. We both have changed I know. But no matter how I try I can't let you go! Just remember one thing and this will be the end: You can count on me now, just like you did before.

Love Hurts

Did you ever love someone and know they don't love you?
Did you ever feel like crying and wonder what to do?
Did you ever think about him
when the lights were down low?
And whisper "God, I love him but I must not let him know."
Did you ever look into his eyes and say a little prayer?
Did you ever look into his heart and wish you were there?
If you fall in love my friend,
you'll find it doesn't pay, although it causes heartbreak
it happens everyday.
So don't fall in love, for the price
you pay is high.
If I had to choose between love and death, I think I'd rather die

Love Hurts.

Memories

I thought that you loved me,
I thought that you cared,
Seeing in my memories,
The good times we shared.

I thought that I loved you,
I thought that we might last,
But now I look back,
It's all in the past.

Our few times together, I had wished it would be forever.

Sometimes you would be so gentle and tender, You could just give the o.k.
and I would willingly surrender

I really thought that you loved me,
I guess I just paid a small fee.
I've been hurt before, and in the future, maybe I will be more.

They say when you love someone, you seem to leave some things unsaid and undone.

Maybe in the future,
when I look at your pictures, and look back at that time in my memories, I won'd hurt any longer and my love for you won't be any stronger.

Miranda Whisenhunt

Dedicated to Steve

When it first started, we didn't know what we were getting ourselves into.

We both had been hurt before and didn't know what to do.

As time passed us by, we really began to care.

We both began to realize, our feelings we could share.

My Love began growing more and more everyday.

And I knew we would never part, not ever, no way.

We have had some problems that we had to take care of. And now I'm so happy, because we are so much in love.

If something happened to us, I don't know what I would do.

So, Babe, please stay by my side and love me as much as I Love You!

Barbara Cox

It is night dark and silent as I walk along the streets.
Though the time is creeping up and swallowing my worried head, as to where you are and who you are with

But now I guess the stars are my only source of light
I let the teardrops fall
For they have a right to.
There use to be more light, especially when I walked along with you at night.

But now I walk alone, and it is so dark without you. Though I Can't help but think what I am going to do without you. Because . . . I still love you

Belinda Ross

Wondering of the future fantasy fills my every thought of you time on my hands leaves open room for new ideas however I try, I can't seem to get you off my mind
For you are the epitome of perfection desirable, yet unaquireable you, Mara, are my future

Paul McCord

Your little grin can warm me from head to toe
And the way you act so macho
Oh how you strut down the hall
It makes me almost faint and fall
You're so sly and so coy
My oh my, you ain't no boy.

Splendor Of Nature

The waves crashed violently on the rocks below,
And Madam Wind picked up the waters, throwing them about.
The air came alive with excitement;
And the trees bowed till their heads touched the ground,
Sending Shivers down earth's spine.
And a roar approached shaking the sky,
Turning it black and everything vile.
And with a clap of thunder and a streak of fire,
THE STORM ARRIVED!
Thirty days and thirty nights the world went wild!
Then while it passed, everything came to a halt.
The gulls started screaming;
Then the sun started shining,
Before long - everything - started growing!

Vast Unknown

I enter the Dark Tunnel of Life
Naked of experience.
And afraid I'll fall,
And won't be able to get back up again.
Unsure of the pleasures that await,
And of the heartaches and sorrows,
That are sure to follow.
Yet, I go alone,
Into the Vast Unknown!

Sometimes I sit and think about the things that I have and haven't done. Maybe I should change my ways and do the things that I haven't done, and look for the things that are yet to come.

The Flair Girl is Back!

The Flair girl featured in our Hilltop ads back in the '60's was a tradition

She's back, and though we don't like to play favorites, we think you'll understand our choice of Elizabeth Allen as the 1981 Flair girl.

We also want to thank each member of the class of '81 who chose us for their Senior portraits.
